JLAN Solutions, a premier provider of professional, technology, and management services, is pleased to announce the award of a contract with the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency (CSOSA) for the District of Columbia.

JLAN was selected after a competitive bid process that included evaluating potential training contractors on consistency, quality, and cost effectiveness. Under the contract, JLAN will develop and deliver strategic and tactical planning training for CSOSA's Senior Executive Leadership Team (SELT); which is responsible for overseeing the Agency's public safety role of community supervision of over 15,000 men and women a year, and almost 900 federal employees.

"Team JLAN is excited to have been to be selected by CSOSA to be their training provider, and it's a testament to our long history of providing high quality professional development education. We look forward to providing our expertise to CSOSA," said Ronnette Meyers, President and CEO of JLAN Solutions. "Our unique background in leadership training and focus on customization will ensure that CSOSA receives the greatest possible support."

About CSOSA

The Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency CSOSA for the District of Columbia is a federal, executive branch agency, created by Congress in 1997 to perform the offender supervision function for D.C. Code offenders. CSOSA provides community supervision to individuals on probation, parole, or supervised release each day.
